

Smart professional series

NIS Academy, an educational initiative of NIS Sparta Ltd, a training, education and learning solutions provider, announced the launch of smart professional series of programmes targeted at the first time job seekers in the sales and customer service. These employability oriented programmes include advanced programme in management and applied skills, certificate in financial services sales and certificate in telecom sales. "The requirement for skilled professionals is always high and with the post recession shift in the job scenario, the gap between demand and supply of such man-power is expected to widen," said Manoj Chawla, Executive Senior VP. Admissions have begun. For details, contact your nearest NIS Academy ■